8. Official Binolla Affiliate marketing guidelines

- Options, Forex, and CFD trading is a regulated activity; as a consequence, all your promotional materials must be fair, not misleading, clear, and comply with these marketing rules.
 - All statements must be balanced; therefore if you mention potential profits you must always also mention potential losses. When promoting Binolla, do not promise that one can learn trading easily or profitably with Binolla unless you are specifically referring to the demo account. Avoid using terms such as “win/make/earn money”, “start your trading career”, or “make an income”, as well as other similar terms.

- Affiliates are not allowed to publish materials or use phrases stating that trading is easy and exciting. Additionally, implying that trading leads to success, a change in lifestyle, financial freedom or any other unwarranted benefit is prohibited. Do not use any visual reference to money (cash, credit cards, notes and coins).
- Options, Forex and CFDs are complex products and are not suitable for everyone. Ensure your promotional materials do not imply that Binolla's products are easy to understand/use and accessible to everyone.
- Do not advertise Binolla as “work from home”, “making easy/guaranteed money” or other unwarranted claims or misleading statements, as such promotion would not emphasize the high risk involved in trading options, Forex and CFDs, and would interfere with the integrity of Binolla.
- Affiliates are only permitted to promote Binolla via web pages, ad campaigns, or other sources which have been reviewed and approved by Binolla's personal or compliance managers.
- In case the Affiliate uses contact forms, comments sections, newsletters, live chats, or any other form of direct and private communication between the Affiliate and a client/prospective client, the Affiliate undertakes the responsibility to act in good faith at all times and must not make any false or misleading statements with respect to the Company and/or the services provided by the Company and/or engage in any other practice which may go against the best interest of the client and may affect adversely the image and credibility of the Company.
- In a case when a Facebook or another social network page (including YouTube) is used for promotion, such social network pages can be accepted as a traffic source only if these pages are not promoting the Company directly but instead promote a website which is used as a traffic source itself. An exception can be made at the Company's discretion.
- Depending on the countries where the majority of your traffic comes from, all promotions and invitations to open an account (registration links) must include the relevant Risk Warning. Ensure the RW is clearly readable, visible, and of appropriate size.

1. Non-regulated countries

You can use a long Risk Warning in case it is visible on each screen of the page:

General Risk Warning: The financial products offered by the company carry a high level of risk and can result in the loss of all your funds. You should never invest money that you cannot afford to lose.

Or you can use a short RW:

RISK WARNING: YOUR CAPITAL MIGHT BE AT RISK

under each link or button to Binolla together with a long Risk Warning at the end of the page or review.

2. Regulated countries and mixed traffic

Following Risk Warning must be used:

CFDs are complex instruments and come with a high risk of losing money rapidly due to leverage. Between 74-89% of retail investor accounts lose money when trading CFDs. You should consider whether you understand how CFDs work and whether you can afford to take the high risk of losing your money.

Whenever Binary Options are mentioned, it should be clearly stated that ZEN E-WAY LLC. does not provide nor promote binary options to retail traders from Europe.

Additionally, the following warning must be present: Binary options are not promoted or sold to retail EEA traders. If you are not a professional client, please leave this page. In case a full warning cannot be added due to a limited amount of space, use the short one instead: Binary options are prohibited in EEA

This material is not investment advice”.
